

franco fabril

Frango Fabril, a mechanical metal company dedicated to the manufacture of corn and sunflower harvesting heads, also has the ability to carry out Agropartes and rebuild used equipment. In addition, he is the official representative of Macdon, marketing Draper and windrowers and combines Zurn brand.

45

YEARS OF EXPERIENCE

600

PRODUCTIVE CAPACITY

4

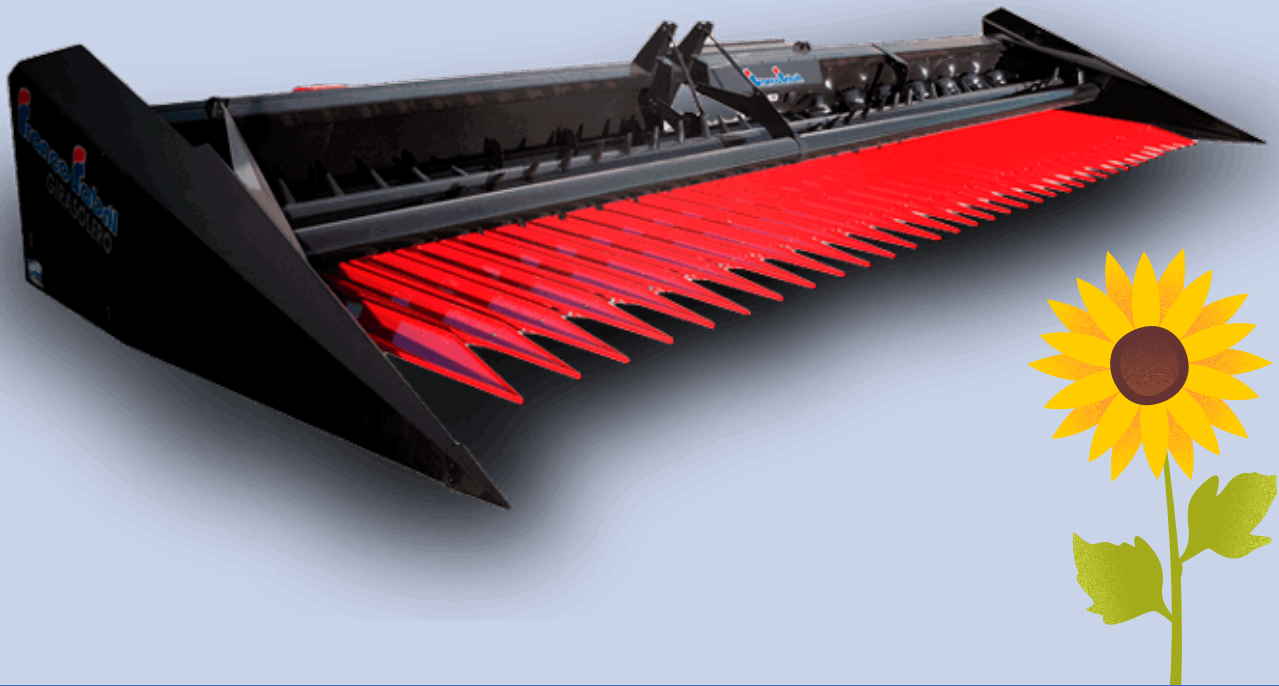

FABRILE PLANTS

FRANCO FABRIL CORN HEAD

- Aluminum alloy case, heat treated. Roller castors of cast steel.
- Covers side chain in oil bath.
- For the stubble treatment, it has three floating blades created from tempered steel.
- No lateral ends to avoid losses of hydraulic or mechanical drive pins.
- Gummed car and adaptation kit.

FRANCO FABRIL SUNFLOWER HEAD

- Registration of trays, this allows the equipment to achieve maximum efficiency during the harvest as they are regulated according to the size of each crop.
- Cutting bar: it is armed with forged points and sections of own manufacture that have an induction hardening process that guarantees durability, giving the unit an excellent cut of stems.
- Box of blades, of own manufacture with Schumacher design that gives an excellent performance and durability to the head.
- Span plant remover, this piece is essential to ensure that no material is added to the harvester and in this way obtain greater productivity of the machine and minimize losses of it.
- Toe cap extension for sunflower fallen: to help in the cases of fallen plants or crossing in the lines of sowing.
- Superior 15 inches defense: In the case of tall sunflowers avoids the loss of chapters through the back of the headactured in different measures of width of work according to the attached picture.